ABOUT THE MANHATTAN-ELWOOD PUBLIC LIBRARY DISTRICT (PUBLIC BODY)

The Manhattan-Elwood Public Library District (also known as MEPLD) serves a community of over 15,266 residents, as well as reciprocal borrowers from the PrairieCat consortia, along with any and all visitors who pass through the Library's doors.

The Manhattan-Elwood Public Library is a district library with a seven-member Board of Trustees elected by residents of the district.

We are required to report to and be answerable to: Illinois State Library, Springfield, Illinois. Its members are: State Librarian Alexi Giannoulis, Director of the State Library, and various other staff. The library is also part of the PrairieCat Consortia and the RAILS library system.

OUR MISSION

The general Library objectives of the Manhattan-Elwood Public Library District shall be:

- To assemble, preserve and administer, in organized collections, books and related educational and recreational materials in order to promote an enlightened citizenship and enrich personal lives.
- To serve the community as a center of reliable information.
- To support educational, civic, and cultural activities of groups and organizations.
- To provide opportunities and encouragement for children, young people, men and women to educate themselves continuously.
- To seek continually to identify community needs and work toward providing programs of service to meet such needs.
- To provide opportunity for recreation through the use of literature and other art forms as available funds permit.

In maintaining these objectives, the following policies should be observed by the Board and Staff: a high degree of accuracy in records maintained and information given, cooperation with other civic organizations, an open-minded attitude toward new methods and improvements for better service, a high degree of attractiveness attained through neatness, order, systematic arrangements, and a careful observation of ethics in relations between Board Members and Staff.
